

Australian Council for Adult Literacy

GPO Box 2283 Canberra ACT 2601

Phone: 03 9546 6892

Email: info@acal.edu.au Website: www.acal.edu.au

ABN 18 120 488 674 Association Inc in ACT A 01297

Membership Application

Membership benefits include our electronic update 'ACAL eNews', professional development services for adult literacy practitioners, discounts on forums and conferences, including the national conference and other opportunities described on our web site. You can join or renew and make secure payments at www.acal.edu.au, click 'Join' then follow the links.

Contact details:

Please complete the following details and post or fax:

Given Name:

Surname:

Department (if any):

Organisation:

Street:

Suburb: State: Postcode:

Phone:

Email:

Method of Payment:

EFT : National Australia bank BSB 082-906 A/c 62-961-6304

Please provide details of your payment – our invoice number, your organisation name, etc. so we can attribute it to you.

Cheque: Cheques payable to Australian Council for Adult Literacy (ACAL)

Credit Card using PayPal: Go to www.acal.edu.au/online-membership-pay.htm

Fees for 2017 (circle one)

- Student $59
- Individual $70
- Organisations with 10 or less staff $155
- Organisations with 10 or more staff $250

Pro Rata fees

Join January to March – full fee applies

Join April to June pay 75% (Students $44.25; Individuals $52.50; Organisations (less than 10) $116.25; Organisations (10 or more) $187.50)

Join July to September pay 50% (Students $27.50; Individuals $35; Organisations (less than 10) $77.50; Organisations (10 or more) $125)

Join October to December, pay the full fee, and renew in January the following year.

Governance

Australian Council for Adult Literacy (ACAL) is a not-for-profit organisation administered by an executive committee comprising elected executive members and a representative from each state and territory council.

February 13, 2017