

Nomination form for the ACAL Committee

Current financial members are invited to nominate for a position on the Council and provide leadership and good governance for the adult literacy and numeracy community. The Council comprises the elected office bearers of President, Vice President, Honorary Secretary, Honorary Treasurer; and the Immediate Past President. The Vice-President must come from a different state to the President. Successful candidates serve a one year term and are eligible for re-election.

Representatives of the states and territories and up to four co-opted members are elected by state councils or ACAL Executive. See ACAL Position Descriptions for responsibilities of each role.

Nomination may be made by an individual member of ACAL or a person whose workplace is an institutional member of ACAL. Nomination forms must reach info@acal.edu.au by noon on the day of the AGM.
